

サイバーセキュリティ通信

広報資料
サイバー犯罪対策課

来日外国人(留学生・技能実習生) に対する被害防止広報

To foreign nationals (International Students, Technical Interns)

Pitfalls of easily earning part-time job
～ Beware of illegal part-time job ～

In recent years, fraud cases in Internet shopping by crime organizations and illegal remittance incidents in Internet banking have occurred frequently.

In such cases, foreigners (international students, technical interns) in Japan are solicited by the people whom they met through the Internet to do part-time jobs which they can earn money easily. But consequently, they are cases where people being involved in crimes by receiving goods or withdrawing money without knowing that they were crime victim's property.

Please pay attention to such kind of temptation.

Criminal

Just picking up the package and bring (send) it to the ○ apartment in ○ City ～

The package you received is stolen property.

Just withdrawing money with ATM from the another person's account and remitting it to the account of ○ ～

The money you withdrew is stolen money.

Just selling an account that you opened or no longer used ～

The buying or selling of an account is a crime.

I will do it if I can get money so easily!!

Do not regret for the rest of your life by being involved in crimes on a sweet temptation for the reason of wanting money.

illegal